

ORGANIZATIONAL ANNOUNCEMENT

January 12, 2011

Effective January 5, 2011, Royal LePage Foothills Real Estate Cochrane Office was acquired by Ken Morris. The Full Service Real Estate Brokerage will now operate as Royal LePage Integrity.

Ken Morris has been a top producing Real Estate Professional in Cochrane for more than one decade. He started with Royal LePage Bow West Realty in 2001 after moving from Terrace B.C with his wife Bev and their 3 kids. He quickly became entrenched in the Cochrane community both Real Estate and otherwise. The opportunity to continue with the Royal LePage family and be the owner operator of a Cochrane Real Estate Brokerage completes the circle of achievement for Ken and his family. Ken intends to continue to build Royal LePage Integrity's presence in Cochrane and surrounding areas. Integrity will also continue to offer the same enhanced level of service to its clients based on a tradition of excellence.
