

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

from Ross & Alexandra Rebagliati

"And the Grinch, with his Grinch-feet ice cold in the snow, stood puzzling and puzzling, how could it be so? It came without ribbons. It came without tags. It came without packages, boxes or bags. And he puzzled and puzzled 'till his puzzler was sore. Then the Grinch thought of something he hadn't before. What if Christmas, he thought, doesn't come from a store? What if Christmas, perhaps, means a little bit more?"

We want to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year!

Here is a quick update of what we have been up to this year:

In February and March Ross spent time at Big White filming cameos for Shred I and Shred II (Tom Green's new movies).

In May Ross announced that he would not be training for the 2010 Winter Olympics anymore as he was accepting the position of Director of Snowboard and Ski Operations for Kelowna Mountain. We moved to Kelowna the beginning of May. Ross is in charge of designing the new terrain park and runs for Kelowna Mountain. Ross will also be running his RASTA (Rebagliati Alpine Snowboard Training Academy) camps in Kelowna starting next season. The camps will be held in Bardonecchia, Italy this January.

Alexandra transferred to MacDonald Realty in Kelowna and is working as a realtor on the Kelowna Mountain project, the Eagle Crest development and for individual clients in Kelowna.

In September Ross rode in the Tour of Courage with Lance Armstrong. He trained all summer and was able to keep up and finish side by side with Lance.

Emma is loving living in Kelowna. She loves swimming in the lake and playing up at Kelowna Mountain.

Please let us know if you are ever out in Kelowna!
