

Whistler Museum presents its 14th Annual Lego Building Competition “Build Your Own Resort”

Saturday, August 21st 2-4pm at the Whistler Museum and Archives, 4333 Main Street

Do you know why people came to Whistler before skiing?
Why did Whistler Mountain become a ski hill?

Find out this summer at the Whistler Museum during the Annual LEGO Building Competition.
What will your resort be? A fishing lodge, a ski hill, an amusement park, a resort of the future? You decide.
Build by yourself or team up with a friend.

$10 per family (includes contest entry and museum admission)

To guarantee your place at this popular event please ensure your entry fee is paid by August 14th.

All children must be accompanied by an adult. It is the responsibility of the parent(s)/guardian(s) to supervise their children.
Museum staff and program facilitators are not responsible for children.
