Description

This updated 3-bedroom home is located on a quiet crescent facing a large park and walking trails for the nature lover. The house offers plenty of room for a growing family with 3 generously sized bedrooms and a large kitchen with patio doors off the eating area. The side door is perfect if you want a secondary dwelling for your family or easy access to the basement. The house has been totally updated over the years with the renovated basement (2023) with building permits and electrical inspections, done professionally by contractors, plumbers, and electricians. The house has also been professionally painted (2023). The large backyard awaits your personal touch and plenty of room for a pool if so desired. Other updates include interior doors, closet doors, some floors, roof, furnace, A/C, kitchen, bathrooms and much more. All appliances are new except stove. It's almost like a new home! Some rooms virtually staged. Possibility of basement unit. (id:2469)
