Owners of strata lots that are rented/leased must provide the Strata Corporation with at least fourteen days advanced notice of the termination of their tenant's rental/lease and/or their tenants notice of their intention to move out of the strata lot. Failure by the strata lot owner to provide the strata corporation with the required notice shall result in fines as provided for under the strata's bylaws.

Should tenants discard household items on the common property or in the strata's garbage bins, the unit owner will be responsible for the cost of disposing of those items.
