Description

Beautiful retreat property within close proximity to Rice Lake & Forest, a private setting encapsulated by mature trees, expansive yard space and natural gardens. The welcoming entry provides a clear view through this well maintained multi level home, multiple walk outs and finished living space on all levels. A spacious primary suite with sitting area and ample sunlit space, vaulted ceiling in the main living room and combination dining/kitchen with patio doors to deck overlooking the South side of the property. Additional bedrooms and bath, lower level with separate entrance and garage access, ideal for in-law potential should you desire. If you have been seeking a property off the beaten path and a rural location that places you between Cobourg/Port Hope and Peterborough you will appreciate features and ideal rural living area. A great opportunity for you to personalize and create your own space to enjoy for years to come with your loved ones! (id:2469)
